GENERAL MARRY'S RESPONSE. MAXWELL House, Nashville, June 5, 1870.

My Very Dear Sir: I recognize your flag-of-truce—"Letter No. 2" Your case will receive early and serious consideration, and it may be possible that through the Executive branch of my State Government, you may obtain a pardon. What my Legislature may do I cannot now say. Possibly (this is strictly confidential) a judicious use of the few remaining assets of the "Mineral Home Railroad" might result in inducing that corruptional prosecution against you. I might all prosecution against you. I might he Mozart Lodge, of Philadelphia, and St. Cecil's Lodge, of New York, both musical lodges.
